

DOMESTIC SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS

A “domestic support obligation” is defined broadly to include a debt that accrues before, on, or after the date of the filing of your bankruptcy petition, including interest that accrues on that debt that is owed to or recoverable by a spouse, former spouse, or child of the debtor or such child’s parent, legal guardian, or responsible relative or a governmental unit. See 11 U.S.C. § 101 (14A).

A domestic support obligation is in the nature of alimony, maintenance or support (including assistance provided by a governmental unit) of such spouse, or child of the debtor or such child’s parent, without regard to whether such debt is expressly so designated. Such obligations whether they have been established or subject to establishment before, on, or after the date of your bankruptcy filing in accordance made by a governmental unit.

Any such obligation is not a “domestic support obligation” if it has been assigned to a nongovernmental entity, unless the obligation is assigned voluntarily by the spouse, former spouse, child of the debtor, or such child’s parent, legal guardian, or responsible relative for the purpose of collecting the debt.

DECLARATION WITH RESPECT TO DOMESTIC SUPPORT OBLIGATIONS

Which of the debtors in this case has or may have a domestic support obligation, as defined above, (and if both indicate where applicable below which information is provided with respect to which debtor):

Each of the debtors in this case who has or may have a domestic support obligation hereby declares that the last known name, address and telephone number for any holder of a domestic support obligation, as defined above, is: _____

If the debtor(s) have moved since the petition date, provided the debtor(s)’ current address and file change address form, if not already filed: _____

The name, address and telephone number of the current employer(s) each of the debtors who owe a domestic support obligation are: _____

I/we declare under the penalty of perjury that the answers to the foregoing questions/statements concerning domestic support obligations are true, complete and correct to the best of my/our knowledge, information and belief.

First Debtor: _____

Second Debtor: _____

Date: _____

Date: _____